TI TIUZ COAT IT

A Coat is a piece of cloth that we wear over our other clothing to keep ourselves warm and another Coat helps in covering the top part of our body mostly worn in suits and a jacket worn on casual outfits. Nowadays, people use different varieties of coats. Coats are open down the front and to close them in-front we use buttons, zips, hook and loop fasteners, toggles or belts. Coats have been used since the 18th century; with the trend today coats and jackets are confused. Wearing coats is the most comfortable accessory. It adds more style to the outfit and to the occasion. So, this article is going to help you and show you how old coats are being revamped and reused. By checking this article out, you will get inspired by bloggers and celebrities on how should we style coats with different kinds of outfits and add scarfs or any other accessories to them.

FESTIVE HOME DECOR

Every year the festive season allows us to bring our favourite glittery and shiny items out into the open which are otherwise showed back inside the closet. # THE KITCHEN SERIES 2021

The tourism authority of Thailand in collaboration with Brandt India has hosted a cooking session at FEU Hyderabad. The event was a cultural blast giving the participants a glimpse of Thai culture and cuisine. The cooking workshop was conducted by chef Sheefah. Sheefah is a profoundly talented chef and is the owner of Asian burgers by Sheefah, Sheefah Bakery and Hill road by Sheefah. The workshop included the preparation of 3 delectable dishes from Thai cuisine. The event started with the preparations of the Massaman curry. The curry is a blend of flavours like sweet, sour and a bit of the tanginess of the tamarind. The second dish prepared was Pad Krapao, a dish that used meat mince or minced tofu or paneer. It is very easy to cook and the taste is just way too amazing. The third and final dish was Fak Thong Kaeng Buat, a beautifully cooked dessert made with papaya and coconut milk. Feu hosted a scrumptious lunch with dishes like authentic Thai Fried rice, Shrimp curry and some tasty cocktails. The workshop was not only fun but was a great experience to dive into the Thai culture and meet some amazing people who graced the event. Along with the commendable hospitality by the hosts, the yummy food won everybody's hearts.

LIFESTYLE

A Versatile Actress of Hyderabad Diaries Videos. The Bold and the beautiful share glimpse of her life.

What is a typical day like in your life?

It's very simple, I wake up around 7-9 AM, work out, try to eat healthily & be productive as much as I can.

How did you get into acting and how did the hilarious Hyderabad diaries videos happen to you?

Me being a part of Hyderabad dairies & acting is super random and I'm very glad it happened. All thanks to Shahrukh, he's one of the people who never give up on me and always encourages me to do better!

Do you get recognized by the people when you hang out how do you feel?

Yes, I do get recognized by people whenever I go out. It feels so good meeting people and taking selfie's and having a chat with them at times. The warmth/ happiness that I feel after I meet them is something indescribable. I love when people approach me.

What does it take to be successful in the field you excel in?

I'm not yet successful, but I believe that to reach your goals or be successful one has to be very consistent and focused, especially in these times when there's so much competition and talent out there, you got to switch between working hard and working smart accordingly. Never forget why you started.

What do you do in your free time?

I love spending my free time with my family and friends and working out. Going out for brunches and dinners, trying out new places and cuisines is something I love doing!

Tell us a funny incident which happened with you?

They're honestly so many, but recently when I was on my way for a shoot I passed out in the cab and the driver was trying to wake me up and then I finally woke up after him continuously trying for 10- 15 minutes, I & the cab driver couldn't stop laughing after I woke up and he advised me to take care of myself and get some good sleep while I was leaving.

What inspires and motivates you?

My family is my biggest support system, they mean everything to me & they inspire me to be a better person in every way possible. The urge to reach my goals in my life is what keeps me motivated & focused.

What's on your bucket list to do?

I haven't made one specific bucket list/ things to do list but travelling the world & exploring different cultures is something I will always want to do for sure.

Rapid Fire

If you are given a genie and have to make 2 wishes what will you wish?

I'd wish for For less drama and more peace and secondly for more unlimited wishes hahaha!

What's your daily dose of happiness?

My cup of tea

If you are left in a supermarket and asked to pick up only 3 things what would you pick?

Gums, Doritos and coke

Food or Gym?

Gym with proper food I'd say

Which character would you like to play in the future?

Any character which holds a major role

If you are paired opposite to your favourite male actor who it would be and what will be the name of the movie?

Ranveer Singh is my all-time favourite male actor and I'd leave the titledeciding part of the movie to the director

FESTIVE HOME DECOR

Every year the festive season allows us to bring our favourite glittery and shiny items out into the open which are otherwise shoved back inside the closet. Sometimes we get too excited while decorating our houses and end up making irreversible mistakes such as painting two unpleasant loud colours side by side. Don't worry about your decor because we got you covered. We took some renowned interior designers from the city to give their expert opinion.

We have Vasundhara Sampath,

an Interior designer at the Phylosophy design studio. She has done some remarkable work around the city. We asked for expert advice for decorating a home for the festive season.

Dos for festive home decor:

1. Rangolis can cheer up any space. They needn't be restricted to just the entrance. You can add it in the corners of your house and place an urli on it. Make sure to use pretty colours like vermillion red and turmeric yellow.

2. Marigold flowers also called 'herb of the sun' brightens the home with their vibrant yellow and orange shades. Use them as a beautiful toran along with mango leaves for your entryway and table arrangements, sprinkle petals on your floral rangoli, or float them in an urli with tea light candles.

3. The most obvious way to decorate is with lots of twinkling lights and diyas. Brass oil lamps, earthenware diyas, tea light candles, fairy lights and paper lanterns- you can never have too many of them.

4. It's time to bring out those beautiful brocade throws and silk cushions in jewel tones like ruby reds and emerald greens. It's the perfect time to bring out the zari and the sequinned designs too.

5. A vital part of Diwali decoration is fragrance. I vividly recall childhood memories of various scents wafting through my home. Sambrani/incense sticks/dhoop/diffusers with essential oils mixed in the air are some which are unforgettable memory. It plays a huge role in bringing the theme of your decor together.

INTERIOR

Don'ts for festive home decor:

- 1. Do not use low quality toxic Rangoli colours, they can easily stain your floors.
- 2. Don't leave any candles or diyas unattended. Placement is crucial; they should not be placed near curtains and wooden furniture.
- 3. Do not invest in low-quality fairy lights. Please buy lights of good quality to avoid any short circuit issues.

- 4. Do not end up with a loud and garish decor. Make sure the colours and material complement the decor for an elegant look. Similarly, make sure the fragrances used to complement each other and do not overwhelm your senses.
- 5. Do not use plastic flowers and leaves for decorating your space. There's nothing prettier than the gorgeous marigolds and the sweet scent of roses to enhance the decor.

Then we have Vishal Parwal, an interior designer and owner of Virat Interiors. He has designed many houses across the city and has shared his expertise with us.

Dos for festive home decor:

1. Use bright colours while decorating your house. It gives a spacious look to the room.

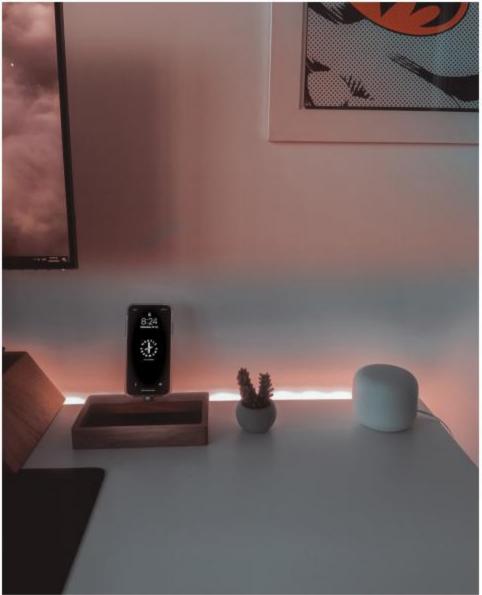

2. Try to add some digital items to your home. You can have digital door locks, clocks and moving picture frames. This brings a luxurious look to your space with a hint of modernity.

3. Other than diyas and candles bring home LED and COB lights. They play a huge role in lifting up the space.

4. A lot of people like to buy new furniture and appliances before the festival. Make sure the colours of these items match your rooms and also take a measurement of the space to check if the piece can fit into your room.

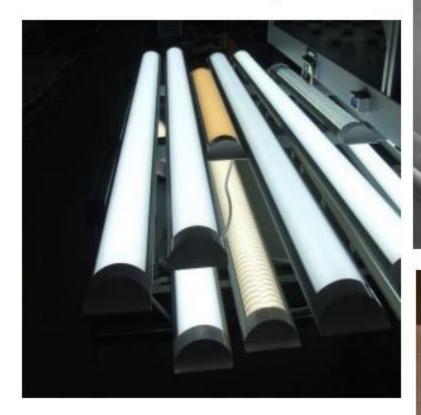

5. Only buy washable cloth for your curtains, cushions and sofas. This helps you to use the items as many times as you like without the worry of it getting dusty.

INTERIOR

Don'ts for festive home decor:

1. Do not go for dark colours during a festival. It dulls out the rest of the decor and affects your mood too.

- 2. Do not install tube lights and panel lights.
- 3. Do not have oversized furniture. It takes up the open space of the room and gives it a congested look.
- 4. Do not buy fabric that cannot be washed.

GIFTING GALORE

Planning a gift for someone can be a creative task. Gifting is one of the universal rituals that is followed by everyone of every age. Gifting is an amazing way of confessing love, affection and care. Also, people find gifting as one of the best ways of conveying their hearty feelings to their near and dear ones during special moments of life. Picking the right gift is indeed a very crucial task as we must consider the other persons, tastes, ideas and personalities. To make a loved one feel special, gifting is surely one of the right ways to be able to wrap up your feelings and surprise them with them.

Trending gifting ideas

ifting, I think, is one of the most authentic ways to shower your loved ones with a little extra love. There are a few feelings and emotions, you can't put into words and that's when gifting comes to the rescue because what better way than to give your best friend that office theme T-shirt after they've had a tough week or give your mom that sari she's been eyeing but just won't buy. I always customize every present I'm giving someone. It just adds a little intimate feeling, in my opinion, one of my go-to for gift ideas would be Pinterest. We can all agree that that's 1 place that never disappoints. When it comes to gifting something like clothes or that sort, I choose brands like H&M and Urbanic. Recently, I started ordering from various small businesses on Instagram. They provide customization at affordable prices and their products are minimal yet classy 1st stop that's something I always look for. Gifting is in its way a love language.

For me, gifting is more than just giving a gift or demonstrating your feelings, it is actually a way to invest in a relationship. In essence, it is a social lubricant, a way to celebrate life, love and friendship and become a better partner, spouse, friend and person. Gifting to me is special, to be able to make something personalized and handcrafted for the person you given it to is all that matters to me. To receive a gift that has been made with thought and effort is more likely to win my heart than receiving something that is just being given for the sake of it.

The whole idea of receiving gifts is quite special to me. I believe that gifts reflect the depth of the relationship you share the kind of effort and attention one is likely to put. The gift can be anything but the gifts which are handmade, thoughtful and have given extra effort are much more precious than the expensive ones.

Surprising my loved ones with gifts has got to be my favourite thing to do. I have always believed that gifts represent a token of appreciation for that person and in a way shows how much I get! I like to go out of my way to make my people smile! I think no Think no matter how materialistic things you give someone, it should always include a personal touch because the best gifts come from the heart and not the store. What I usually do is make sure that whatever gift I am giving is unique to them. A gift should feel and be personal. I think a gift symbolizes how we pay attention to the minute details a person desires. My go-to gifting idea has got to do with making a little frame out of cardboard, ivory sheets, paint and an acute memory that captures the whole essence of my gift! I laughed to get creative with these ideas. My go-to gift store is Miniso. A little note is mandatory when I give someone something. Words have a way to people's hearts and choosing the right words with the right gift makes a heart melt! To me, choosing a gift becomes, an adventure because I put a lot of thought into it. A thoughtful gift is what makes the receiver believe the love devotion towards portrayed them.

SPECIAL

Coco Tango, By Junior Sous Chef & Pastry Chef- Anvesh Bhandari at Hyderabad Marriott Hotel and Convention Center

Ingridients:

Cashew- 600gms Sugar - 350gms Water - 200ml

Cocoa Powder - 200gms

For Malta Orange Marmalade:

Blanched Peel & Orange Juice - 3 nos Sugar - 60gms

For Garnish:

Cocoa Nibs - 100nos Chocolate Glaze - 70gms Bronze Dust - 2gms

Step 1 – Orange Marmalade

- Take washed oranges, cut length wise into halves and further into quarters.
- With a sharp knife de-skin the oranges to further remove the rind, roughly chop up the rinds
- Blanch orange rind, strain and refresh with cold water (Quick tip, repeat this process thrice,
- 4. this gives you less bitter tasting marmalade).
- In a heavy bottomed pan, add blanched orange juice, sugar, orange rinds and bring to a boil;
- reduce the heat to medium low and simmer for about 40 to 50 minutes, cook until a jam like
- 7. consistency.
- Completely cool down the mixture and store in a glass container.

Step 2 - Orange Mixture

- 1. In a heavy bottomed cast iron kadai, combine together sugar (175 Gms) & (100 ml).
- Melt them together without discoloring, when the syrup reached 112 degrees Celsius add
- 3. orange marmalade and cashew powder, stirring continuously.
- 4. Cook the mixture on a low flame till all combined into a dough like consistency.
- Immediately remove onto a clean work surface.
- 6. Mix around with a spatula to get a smooth texture (Quick tip: Work very fast, keeping in
- mind not to over knead as this will secrete the oils from the cashew).
- Allow the mixture to completely cool down before we move to the shaping process.

Step 3 - Cocoa Mixture

- In a heavy bottomed cast iron kadai, combine sugar (175 Gms) & water (100 ml).
- Melt them together without discoloring, when the syrup reached 112 degrees Celsius add
- cocoa powder and cashew powder, stirring continuously.
- Cook the mixture on a low flame till all combined into a dough like consistency.
- Immediately remove onto a clean work surface.
- Mix around with a spatula to get a smooth texture (Quick tip: Work very fast, keeping in
- mind not to over knead as this will secrete the oils from the cashew).
- 8. Allow the mixture to completely cool down before we move to the shaping process.

Step 4 – Shaping the Final Product

- Place the cooled ball of orange mixture in a 12/12 square cake mold.
- Shape the mixture to acquire the entire square, ensure this is pressed down firmly to avoid
- 3. any air gaps (should be 15 mm).
- Repeat this process with the cooled ball of cocoa mixture (should be 10mm).
- 5. Unmold the cake tin and place a grease proof rolling pin over it to roll at 25mm height.
- Cover the entire surface with chocolate glaze and sprinkle cocoa nibs when it is damp.
- Measure 25mm lengthwise and breadthwise and with a sharp knife cut into perfect squares.
- 8. Brush the top with bronze dust.

Silver Pistachio, By Sous Chef Kailash at Novotel Hyderabad

Ingridients:

Pistachios - 500gms Sugar - 500gms Ghee - 50gms Powdered Green Cardamom - 3gms Silver Vark (for Garnishing) -2

Method

- 1. Soak the pistachios in warm water for about 20 minutes.
- 2. Drain the water and remove the skin of the pistachios and 2-3 drops of food colour in a mixer to blend them to form a smooth paste.
- 3. Then prepare a sugar syrup by dissolving the sugar in the water.
- 4. Add the pistachio paste to the sugar syrup and keep stirring. Add the cardamom powder and cook for a few minutes.
- 5. Grease a plate using the ghee and spread the pista mixture on it.
- 6. Then roll in to desired shapes and garnish with the silver vark.

GurhMewa, by Sous Chef

Sathish Kumar, at Sheraton

Hyderabad Hotel

Step 1 (The Mixture):

- Roughly chop all the dry fruits and store aside.
- In a kadai, shallow fry almonds, pistachios, cashews and figs separately. Mix all the roasted nuts together and shallow fry.
- When done take the mixed nuts off the kadai and store aside
- Heat kadai again, add hone and jaggery, cook until the jaggery dissolves completely and bring to a boil. Add desiccated coconut to the mix.
- 5. Add all the roasted nuts into

- the jaggery mixture and stir for 4-5 minutes.
- Remove the mixture onto a clean work surface and allow to cool

Step 2 (Shaping the Final Product):

- Knead the mix gently.
- Divide the mixture into equal parts of 15gms each.
- 3. Roll into even sized balls.
- Roll further into chopped nuts to achieve 20gms.

Diwali 2021: Hyderabadi's & their Glamorous Celebrations!

Diwali – it is that time of the year when we don our jazziest outfits and pull out our sparkly shoes to enjoy the grand celebrations with our near and dears. The festive season seems to be a time when everything else takes a backseat and spending time with your loved ones comes into focus. We decided to leverage this very sentiment and interviewed different families from the city asking them about their celebration style.

Read along to know all about their unique festive tales!

Neerja Kona with her son Ansh

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

It has to be the last Diwali of the year 2020. I and Ansh started putting Rangoli in front of the house....thought of doing something simple but one thing lead to another. We ended up doing these really intricate designs and had so much fun filling them with different colours and flowers. We went on to decorate our whole place with flowers and Diya's - which me and his hand-painted. And that evening all of us got together and cooked a great meal at home, all in all, it was a day well spent with my family. I got to wish my friends and it was such a lovely day filled with great memories.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

It's usually something simple. I prefer Chanderi or cotton sarees or kurtas. I love jumkas and it definitely is my go-to accessory to up the festive quotient for the day.

3. What is the most lovable thing about Diwali?

I think the best part about our Indian culture and our festivals is that it's one day that everyone automatically gets into a happier mood. We are all in a festive spirit and the bonds between family and friends seem so much stronger. I have always loved festival mornings. The smell of amazing food being cooked in the kitchen to the floral decorations of the puja mandir. It's just such a happy time.

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

I am so not a firecracker person! Although I love to watch fireworks shows sometimes but have never been much into bursting crackers. I remember as a kid loving those black snake tablets that when set on fire you can see the "snake". Ansh on the other hand loves his crackers, he loves rockets and Lakshmi bombs and ladees.

5. How is a typical day like at your house?

My mother in law usually is the first one up prepping the puja mandir and getting things ready in the kitchen. We all usually are up quite early and try to pitch in as much as we can. I love getting Ansh ready and we usually video call our cousins and friends to wish them. Once the puja is done it's just a day spent being around the living room with lots of food to go around. By the evening ideally, we would have been done decorating the house and getting ready to light the Diya's. I prefer a cracker free Diwali but Ansh is a bit too young and he really loves his crackers. So for him, we usually bring a few crackers and the boys have their fun time. And we are onto a nice family dinner and end the day watching a movie.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special outfits?

I love shopping online. Loom and Jaypore are my go-to sites. But in Hyderabad, I usually shop at Ritu Kumar, Fab India, Nicobar or Anonym.

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

The pandemic has taught all of us to be more receptive to one another I feel spending time with each other has become that much more important. Like I said festival time at home is a time to bring all of us together. I am looking forward to doing the same this year with Ansh, getting some Diya's to paint and spending time decorating the house with simple flowers and lights. And lots of food!

The Surana Family

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

My most memorable Diwali was definitely the Diwali years we celebrated as kids. Diwali was such a joyous event and it was so much fun celebrating it with kids of our age group.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

The only time of the year that I put on Indian wear and the traditional jewellery comes out. This year I'll be wearing a nude coloured mirror work Anarkali.

3. What is the most loveable thing about Diwali?

On Diwali the full family comes together, there are smiles and laughter and happiness in the air, that's the best thing about Diwali!

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

I have a real love for rockets!

5. How is a typical day like at the Surana House?

A typical Diwali day is starting off with Pooja in the morning, having an elaborate lunch together, moving to our factory to do Pooja and then coming back home and lighting some diyas and some mild crackers! Our entire joint family comes together and it's tons of fun.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special

I love to shop at exhibitions, you get different collections and designers that you don't find at stores.

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to

I don't think so, apart from the fact that we don't light up as many crackers as before, this Diwali will be the same as others.

The Singi Reddy Sisters

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

Every Diwali is so important to me as we enjoy doing a lot of things together my grandma doesn't remember the date or month when my father was born so said once it was on Diwali so we celebrate my dads birthday every Diwali.

2. What's your Ootn/ Ootd for the day?

I am very casual, comfy when it comes to clothes. My go-to style during the day is usually kurti at home and outside mostly whites.

3. What is the most loveable thing about Diwali?

Decorating the house together, my mom, sister everyone is involved in making rangoli to setting up the lights.

4. What is your favourite firecracker?

Rockets add colours to the sky, and I personally enjoy the feeling of looking up to a glittery sky.

5. What is a typical festive day like at the Singi Reddy house?

We have Lakshmi pooja followed by feeding the orphan kids food as it's my dad's birthday and we end up lighting some eco fireworks.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali outfits?

I love getting ready especially ethnic. Almari, Abha, premyabymanishii, simone

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

Diwali is a festival of lights so this year we wanted to keep the celebration simple and light others life and make a difference so we planned on supporting the orphanage kids with their academics.

VIJAYEESAM

5. How is a typical day like at the Sarin Gokhale house?

We wake up early, get dressed, start off by putting flowers all around, Rangoli, making the Diya's ready for the night, do a small Pooja, visit close family & friends to give Our little Hampers & Mithai. Lunch is usually a feast with a lavish Spread of Indian Food, followed by Pooja & lighting of Diya in the evening and the Laxmi Pooja. For Dinner we usually have a party at home with a few Closed ones, Some Friendly Poker, Dinner & Drinks followed by Music & Crackers.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special outfits?

I personally order my outfits a month before just so that it's delivered on time! We buy our Outfits from Indian Designers to Support homegrown brands & in case we need a fun Party Outfit, Zara & HM have a lovely Affordable Indian Collection this year.

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

Diwali is the only Biggest Festival we as a family celebrate & keep the Pandemic in mind and also now being Extra Careful since we have a Baby, we ensure everyone who comes over are fully vaccinated. Apurva & I would have our Masks on when we step out and probably Skip going to too many Houses to ensure we restrict contact with too many people.

The Gokhale Family

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to Diwali all these years was always about having Lavish Parties & Games however after we had our baby Kiara, the Last Diwali was special as we Stayed at home and celebrated amongst Us as a Family and had a very Close Intimate celebration with our Daughter. The Significance also being that it was Kiara's First Diwali and watching her play around with flowers and LED candles & enjoying the lights was priceless.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

My outfits for Diwali are Always Indian. I don't wear Indian traditional outfits all around the year but when it comes to Festivals, I Love my Anarkali's, Lehenga's & Draped Saree Gowns.

3. What is the most lovable thing about

What I love about Diwali are the festivities as a whole:) Right from getting the house Cleaned for Diwali, (Diwali ki Safai) and getting hampers ready for all the people we love, buying Diya's, painting them, the flowers, the special Ghee Mithai, the Pooja, the sparkles and everything pretty is everything gets us excited to celebrate Diwali

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

We don't burst as much as we used to back when we were kids but just as a custom we light a few Smoke-free Sparkles, Flower Pots & a few fancy crackers that go up and burst into several formations just to show Kiara how the Festival of Lights is celebrated.

The Boda Family

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

Diwali's are always very special and are memorable every year, now it is a little more memorable as my Son is in his teens and as a family, we enjoy with each other a lot. Going back to my childhood years we used to have crazy fun with all our cousins they all used to come to our house. we all used to burst crackers till late at night. Parallelly enjoy traditional South-Indian special foods organised by mom which was delicious.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

I love to wear traditional in the day like nice pattu or designer Saree and Indo-western during the night, preferable some good designer collection of the season.

3. What is the most lovable thing about Diwali?

The most lovable thing is being together with Family and Friends, apart from that the festive mood, food and lights & decorations make it icing on the cake.

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

I like the Flowerpots and Rockets, they have beautiful colours and lights come out of them.

5. How is a typical day like at the Boda's House?

The typical day starts a day before with some decoration to the home and on Diwali day we get ready with new clothes and accessories (Jewellery), then we do Lakshmi Pooja in the evening. We make special Dishes and Sweets for the festival lunch and in the evening our family and a few friends meet and have a fun time with Crackers, music, food and some festive games at our entertainment area and by the poolside lawns to end the night on a happy note.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special outfits?

Nowadays there are many places to shop from Branded shops to Designer Stores, which you can access even online. Particularly Hyderabad is having most of the designer outlets at Banjara Hills and Jubilee Hills area, which are well known for all the best stores in town. I also like shopping in Delhi where the variety and spread are much

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

Definitely, due to the pandemic Diwali celebrations will be a little lowkey but the spirit of Diwali is very high, as we are sailing at the end of the Pandemic and life is coming to normal. We hope to end with this Diwali a period of uncertainty and kayos. Wish the year ahead with lots of happy days and a Health life.

The Hindocha Family

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

It has to be the Diwali from my childhood, those days were so different. Everyone used to dress up completely in traditional whether men, women or kids. The Poojas, the crackers, the family Getogethers and the shopping. everything was so much fun. I remember preparations used to begin even before Dussehra in terms of cleaning and preparing snacks and sweets. I miss all those traditional delicacies which my grandmother used to prepare for Diwali, now we've become so health-conscious that we can't afford to eat those. However, these small things bring out the true essence of the festival.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

For Diwali it's always a Saree, we have poojas back to back from Dhanteras till Diwali day. At home and at our place of work. So it's bandhini or Banarasi sarees.

3. What is the most lovable thing about Diwali?

I love how it brings friends and family together. At this age, we've gotten so busy and engrossed in the cycle of life that we've forgotten the importance of family & friends. Social Media has taken the place of these important people in our lives, but the personal touch can never be replaced. I always cherish the moments with family when there are no gadgets and everyone is having pure fun.

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

I love the Anar, it's just beautiful. Love its colours!

5. How is a typical day like at the Hindocha house?

Every year, on Diwali day the first thing we do is a Pooja at home. We make Undhiyu which is a traditional curry item made with lots of vegetables and mixed flavours. It is Followed by making calls to our distant relatives to wish and seek blessings from them. Later on, we get ready for the Pooja at our store. The day ends with bursting a few firecrackers and a Family Dinner. For us Gujaratis, the New year falls on the next day of Diwali and it is of utmost importance. We make Godpapdi on this day which is a sweet item made out of wheat flour, Jaggery and Ghee. Then we set off to meet all our relatives in town and seek their blessings. Usually, the younger ones go to the elder's house and the entire day passes by meeting all family members. Diwali for us is not just one day, it's spread across two months. Pre and post, owing to hectic work schedules everyone plans dinner at their residence only on weekends. So we literally have our calendars marked for every weekend. Sometimes it's my in-laws, some times my paternal family, some times our friends so it's a lot of fun around this time.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special outfits?

There's a new store recently opened by the name Ohana, it's a great place for Fusion and Designer garments. For Sarees, Mandir is a wonderful store and for Men's wear, it's none other than Tejas Harish.

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

I don't think so, with the successful vaccination drive, there's more confidence and less fear in people. It won't have much effect on the Diwali Celebrations as the last year was dull, this I am sure everyone would like the celebrate their hearts out. However, I request to keep smaller gatherings just to be the safer side.

The Mohan Family

1. Which is your most memorable Diwali to date?

Every Festival is unique and Diwali is one of the festivals. We are individuals who appreciate and observe Every celebration. Diwali is a festival of happiness. But last year Diwali when everyone was a strained reason for Coronavirus, we assist numerous merchants with selling their diyas. We showed numerous women how to make diyas and helped them to sell.. which was extremely fulfilling.

2. What's your ootn or ootd for the day?

Ootd, complete customary. Ghaghra of South Indian silk dropped with ikkat saree. Work of beguiling, Falaknuma Palace and Pala pitta, Nawabi Hyderabad tehjeeb. During the nighttime, we do Laxmi Pooja. So really like to be in North Indian customary clothing.

3. What is the most lovable thing about Diwali?

The most adorable thing about Diwali is I see all my relatives smile on their faces, wishing one another and taking care of one another desserts.

4. What are your favourite firecrackers?

Crackers I don't burn much because of contamination. Yet, yes Anar is the thing that we burn as it adds light.

5. How is a typical day like at the Mohan house?

A typical day starts with the Design of the home really seven days before to invite Goddess Laxmi and Relatives. We ease up our home. We love lights. Companions start coming to meet DAY starts with LUXMI POOJA AT *MY LABELINA DE SALON* We disseminate gifts and desserts to staff. Then, at that point, to Devnaar blind school where we serve food and treats. We meet our elders and seek their blessings. During the evening we meet our neighbours to wish glad Diwali. Evening time is for Laxmi Pooja at home according to Mahuratum. Then, at that point, with our loved ones legitimate cooking with Hyderabadi flavour food and dessert followed by consuming of crackers.

6. What according to you are the best places to shop for Diwali special outfits?

MY favourite is SOUN AND SHAUGAT PAUL, ELAHE, Rohit Bal, Kavita Agarwal, CN DEZINE studios and one of my dear friend RASHMI DOSHI

7. Are Diwali celebrations this year going to be any different due to the pandemic?

Yes, definitely it's going to be different as Pandemic has taught us many different things. People have started realizing what they were missing and who is actually close at the time of difficulties. So I feel most of them must be celebrating with *their real ones, not reel ones.*

Fellow Hyderabadi Bloggers Spill the beans about themselves-

In between editors, journalists, media personalities, and celebrities, there's no doubt that bloggers have carved themselves out of a spot in the industry. Bloggers, influencers and social media stars are some of the most sought-after names in fitness, lifestyle, fashion and travel nowadays.

SHOPPING PARADISE: CHARMINAR

Shopping can never get boring and in the city of nizams, the everlasting aura of shopping at Charminar remains a classic for most fashion enthusiasts. The beauty of Charminar isn't just about the phenomenal architecture curated to cherish through generations, but the monument is a true sign of hospitality, elegance and a versatile introduction to the world of shopping. Dubbed the Arc de Triomphe of the east and Hyderabad's most iconic structure, Charminar, was built to mark the eradication of the epidemic cholera that had ravaged the city in the 16th century. Lying on the east bank of the Musi river with the Laad Bazaar to its west and Makkah Masjid to the south-west, Charminar is a cultural and historical landmark that translates into four minars or pillars in Urdu. The area around the monument is also referred to as Charminar, and for a first-timer, a tour of the Nizam city is incomplete without taking in the infectious energy of the place where it all began. Albeit traffic-ridden, the bazaars are still chaotic with their labyrinthine by-lanes heaving with hawkers, bangle sellers and food stalls.

FEATURE

SHOPPING IN CHARMINAR

Shopping can be a real pain if we have to move from places and travel distances trying to find the right fit. Amidst this chaos, just a mere thought of a bazaar filled with over 14,000 shops, extravagant silhouettes and pocket-friendly prices cheers up the shopping buzz in all of us. Charminar is a hub for ethnic fashion and innumerable designs of cloth. One of the best parts about shopping in lad bazaar apart from impeccable styles and designs is the price. Budget-friendly prices make shopping here easy and pocket friendly.

JEWELLERY SHOPPING

Charminar is a place where Exclusive jewellery sets will leave you stunned. From simple earrings to bridal sets, this shopping galore has it all. Beautifully layered necklaces with pearls and emeralds are surely a decent pick. In the alleys of Laad Bazaar, you'll find a never-ending display of elegantly crafted pearl chains, maang tikas, enchanting earrings and stunning nose rings. This is the perfect place to find jhumkas and other earrings in faux Kundan, polki and other designs. There is no sugar coating here - what you see is what you get. And 50% of the time, what you get here is at par with what's available at high-end stores. Street vendors, mostly tribal women from Andhra Pradesh, put on sale anklets and waistbands. They are not made of silver, but you might just get lucky if you hair in place to fancy, shiny clutches - there are chances that you might end up finding something you like. The bangles here can put the bling-loving hip hop artiste to shame, yet, have a charm of their own. Hyderabad is known for its bangles, with an entire lane dedicated solely to this accessory. So, while on your midnight jaunt, take a walk down the 'bangle' road to check out the latest. Put up a good bargain and viola! You're now the proud owner of some glittering

CLOTHING AND FOOTWEAR SHOPPING

It is every Indian girl's dream to own a dazzling Indian outfit embodied with alluring embroidery and magnificent craftsmanship. At Charminar, one can find marvellous Indian outfits ranging from plain cotton suits to the dress you'd be adorning as a beautiful bride. The clothing collection in Charminar is awe-inspiring. Exclusive materials can be found at reasonable rates in impeccable designs like chikankari, mirror work, shimmered silhouettes, raw silk fabrics and many such materials that will give you the exact dress you're desiring. The readymade clothing section in Charminar can't be described in mere words. Exceptional designs will not fail to take you on a ride. Pakistani suits, bridal outfits, lehengas and even daily wear suits are available at reasonable prices and a huge variety of designs and colours to choose from. Apart from these, you can also find beautiful borders made with kundans, mirrors and embroidery. The collection of laces and tassels is fascinating and the patterns of the tassels and laces will leave you stunned.

STREET SHOPPING FANATICS

I am a shopaholic, I love shopping and it is one of my favourite things to do and that to shopping at Charminar is my all-time favourite and my go-to spot and the best thing about Charminar is we get the best items at an affordable range and when we go to Charminar how can we forget about chudi Bazaar if you are chudi lover then you need to check this place out and we also get best pearls over there Charminar is like one-stop destination & happy shopping!!!

Mana/a, Student

My love for shopping is a never-ending story. Charminar being the hub for designers, shopping there makes it much easier and lets me unravel the creativity in me by picking outfit materials. Places giving carnival vibes, bright & colourful lights lift up the mood to shop in this festive season.

Vaishnavi, student

Shopping is my favourite hobby. Since I was a kid it was my dream To have a colour wardrobe filled with my favorite colours and styles. Usually, I do most of my shopping from malls but in Indian shopping, my only go-to place is Charminar. Charminar is filled with beautiful patterns and designs. Another reason I go there is also for the prices. I would definitely recommend shopping at Charminar if you're interested in defining your dream dress.

V. Alekhya Reddy, Student

FEATURE

Charminar is one of my favourite shopping places, one of the main reasons I go to Charminar is for its jewellery, you can find beautiful designs of jewellery right near the hawkers and pedlars for the most reasonable prices. Another favourite part about it is that you can find heavy designed ghagras and lehengas for absolutely reasonable prices. If you compare the prices with any boutique, you will crack a better deal at Charminar.

Airhwarya Endla, Employee

Nothing says Charminar and old city better than a pair of shararas and pearls. So Charminar is where my design journey began. Whenever we used to visit Hyderabad my mother would take me with her to shop for fabrics so we could design our ethnic wear. And I remember spending hours and hours walking around stores selecting everything from laces and borders to matching bangles for my outfits. And the streets of Charminar, just scream inspiration to me, the colours, the lighting, just every corner has a personality of its own! My favourite is Madina market, I can spend hours shopping (even window shopping) for fabrics there. And choose Bazar, like do I even have to describe this? One can just stare at these streets and never get bored.

Bhumija, Student

Charminar is a beautiful place indeed but for a shopping fanatic like me, the laad bazaar has to be my forever favourite. The beauty of the place, the crowd, the vibe, the colours and the lights just make my whole shopping experience so much fun. The designs and prices are commendable. Do check out shopping at Charminar. It's worth it.

FOOD ROUND THE CLOCK IN HYDERABAD

Hyderabad is a bastion of good food, you have all the good food in the world here, and this is not an exaggeration. The city might be synonymous with its tasty biryanis but is also famous for its other gourmet experiences. Whether you're craving the spice synonymous with authentic Andhra cuisine or you'd rather explore new flavours from around the world like Chinese, Italian, European or Persian, there is no dearth of restaurants you can dine at.

We at Tulip, have shortlisted a variety of the best places in Hyderabad where you should have all 5 courses of your day. Take your pick from an array of restaurants that offer breakfast, lunch, evening snacks, dinner and even your midnight cravings!

BREAKFAST (5:00 AM- 11:30 AM)

Ram Ki Bandi

This Dosa point is recommended not only by us but also by thousands of people other neighbouring states too. The dosa is folded and chopped like a Quesadilla. The coconut chutney was perfectly creamy with a hint of spice. You don't have to be a Vegetarian to appreciate all the amazing flavours packed into these dosas. They also provide Butter Idly but only a few people like to eat them. The Cheese Dosa and the Masala Dosa are our absolute favourites. The place opens at 5 am and shits at 8 am, thus making it a to-go spot for early birds as well as night owls.

Aura Cafe

Aura Cafe is hidden in one of the quietest alleys in Jubilee Hills. Once you reach the place, locating it is slightly confusing as you might find a grocery store instead of a café but hidden from view at the entrance is a sizeable café extending from the store with seating areas inside as well as outside. The restaurant is warm and well-lit. For breakfast, they have both English and American breakfast with a variety of eggs cooked and served in numerous ways, pancakes, waffles, museli and freshly baked breads. Our favourite is the 'Shakshuka', a middle Eastern scrambled egg dish served with mixed peppers, tomatoes, parsley and pita bread. The style in which this dish was served was a treat to the eyes. They also have waffles with chocolate ice cream and peanut butter that are tasty but have room for improvement. For a filling breakfast and unique serving style, Aura is your new destination.

Aditya Park

The Promenade at Aditya Park has a breakfast buffet that is a treat to the eyes. Their buffet has a variety of options in both Indian breakfast and Western breakfast. The Indian breakfast again has North Indian as well as South Indian options like the steamed Idly, wada, dosa, uthappam,aaloo, paratha, paneerparatha, and gobiparatha. The Western breakfast included cereals, waffles, salads, croissants, donuts and a variety of eggs. Along with this, they also have options of tonic waters and energy drinks. For a heavy breakfast buffet with a lot of variety, this place is a must visit!

LUNCH (1:00 PM - 4:00 PM)

Little Italy

This place is the pioneer of the concept of Italian vegetarian fine dining in India. Little Italy has been a go-to place for everyone in Hyderabad ever since its inception specializing in wood-fired pizzas and fresh handmade pastas. They have recently introduced a new contemporary menu which takes a modern take on traditional Italian recipes and recreates the dishes, with an all-new dessert menu yet to launch there are many surprises yet in store for guests visiting little Italy. It is a vegetarians paradise and probably one of the few places one can eat veg food without complaints. Their 'Pappa Di Pomodoro' soup made with roasted tomatoes and bell peppers and the 'Pale Di Potato' served with garlic mayonnaise sauce along with the 'Jalapeno Salsa' are our favourites among starters. For the main course, we pick the 'Rigatoni Finnochio' pasta made with truffle porcini cream, roasted fennel, saffron and pine nuts. Their 'Lasagne Alle Verdure' is also a must try. The 'Chocolate Bomb', a molten lava cake made served with vanilla ice-cream is the most loved by all for dessert.

CUISINE Lé Vantage Cafe Bar

Lé Vantage is a cafe that serves humble and warm food, drinks, good vibe and great music. Located in the hubbub of Jubilee Hills, this place is one of our favourite places for a quiet lunch or dinner date. It has a lovely ambience with plenty of outdoor seating and its Greek-inspired decor gives a very vintage feel. The most interesting part of this cafe is its ability to play underground music- a feature appreciated by many international artists. The food at Lé Vantage is vast with a lot of variety to choose from. From tea, coffee and soda to soups, sandwiches, burgers, pizzas, pastas, veg/nonveg starters, main course and soft/ hard drinks, they have it all! The Tomato Corn Tortilla soup, Italian Caprese Sandwich, Chicken Wings, Pizza PeriPeri Chicken, Creamy Pesto Pasta and the Indian Lamb Chops along with some Peppermint tea and Summer Peach Mocktail are our top lunch picks from this place. For a chic and comfy lunch, Lé Vantage is the perfect destination.

China Bistro

China Bistro is the favourite destination of all Chinese food lovers. You don't have to enter the restaurant to feel the Chinese Vibes and the huge Samurai statues at the entrance beckon you to come inside. Once you enter the restaurant and get seated, you will notice an entire wall dedicated to Chinese emperors filled with images from their reign. Now coming to the food, China Bistro is known for its lunch buffet comprising of 30-40 items. Their pepper lemon soup and hakka soup are very refreshing. In starters, they outdo themselves with an array of options for both vegetarians and non-vegetarians. The chicken lollipops, crispy vegetables made with chillies and black pepper, sizzling chicken Taipei, fire roasted mandarin chicken and the wok tossed prawn hunan style are their most loved dishes. In the main course, our top picks include the veg croquettes with Cantonese soy chilli, hot pot hunan chicken, red prawn Thai curry and the fried fish fillet paired with fried rice and noodles of course. For desserts, they have a variety of pastries and fruits along with a choice of ice creams. Don't forget to visit China Bistro when you're craving Chinese food.

Spice 6 The Arab Villagio

The Arab Villagio Restaurant has quickly built a reputation as one of the best new Lebanese restaurants in the town and deservedly so. More than a place to eat, it combines food, design and music making the dining experience a cultural one too. The menu, a cosmopolitan fusion of Mediterranean, Asian and Middle Eastern dishes, features an excellent menu. It's on the border between simplicity and rich tradition. While the electric selection of music picks creates an intimate ambience, the architecture-a spot-on combination of cool, modern style accompanied by the warmth of wood and warm lights is simply unique. Their Arabian mixed platter containing a variety of delicious kebabs, Garlic Fish, the Lebanese hummus and Mohammara accompanied by falafel, RubiyanShorba and MashaviMushakkal are our top picks from the restaurant. Their food is so authentic that you cannot make out if you are eating in India or Arabia. No wonder, breaking the record of hattricks Spice 6 has bagged the prestigious Times Food Award, fourth consecutive time!

SNACK TIME (5:00 PM - 6:30 PM)

Tea Villa Cafe

Tea Villa Cafe is a cafe chain that was started in Mumbai and is now In Hyderabad. Located on two levels, its ambience is something very unique. The ground level has a high-level ceiling with chandeliers and beautiful decor green walls with nice frames and furniture. The first level has a nice long swinging sofa bench. Coming to snacks, Tea Villa has over 100 exotic varieties of the world's best teas, coffee along with cuisines such as Italian, Continental, Mexican, Chinese, Indian, Asian, Lebanese, Belgian waffles, Desserts and much more. It has the biggest vegetarian menu in town which will surely attract you. For eats, try the cheese fondue, sizzling waffles, cheesy pull-apart garlic bread, melon arugula salad, and loaded freak shakes. The Belgian waffles are a must try and it's their signature dish.

Guilt Trip

Guilt Trip is one of the first famous patisseries of Hyderabad that was loved by one and all. The ambience here is very colourful with different seating. At guilt trip, they serve a variety of bakery, dessert and fast food items. Their Ferrero Mousse, Red Velvet chocolate pastry, peanut butter cupcake, nuttellachoco cheesecake, chocolate brownie, peachy affair mocktail, chicken kurchankathi and pomodoro pasta are our favourites.

Address: Banjara Hills, Madhapur, Somajuguda Contact: 8374006267, 040 33194144

Cafe Niloufer

This is one of the oldest spots in Hyderabad famous for its tea and biscuits. If you ever want to have typical Hyderabadilrani tea along with a variety of cookies, this should be your destination. The Niloufer special tea is our favourite as it has a thick and creamy texture and the taste like it is difficult to find anywhere else. This tea is served along with an assortment of the Osmania biscuits, melting moments, zeera ties and nankhatai. These are all very different from each other but really are ethereal.

Indian Foodies Hub

This new dinner spot in Hyderabad has very quickly become a favourite of all. When you reach the restaurant, you come across a lovely outdoor seating which is all white along with a multicoloured fountain which makes it an even prettier hangout spot to click pictures. The inside of the restaurant is a simple minimalistic decor with orange yellow and brown seating. The dinner buffet at this restaurant is both lavish and budget friendly. Few of our favourites are the chilly garlic fish, sholay chicken fry, paneerlababdar, mutton rogangosht, devil vegetables and the chicken kohlapuri. The special bhatti tandoori biryani at the Indian Foodies Hub is to die for. It comes in a large mud pot cooked in the bhatti and its flavour is extremely tasty and authentic. For desserts, we loved the gajarhalwa rolls and the chocolate brownie accompanied by the pan and cherry mocktail.

So- The Sky Kitchen

So is a peaceful rooftop restaurant with a cozy ambience and makes you feel like you are dining under the stars. The ambiance gives you serenity vibes while the music and the atmosphere they created will relax you instantly. For starters, do not miss the chef's special wok whose blew us away with a generous amount of exotic veggies and chicken. The tandoori bharlimirch, bhatti da murga, galouti, sarson da saag, SO speciality mutton and the lamb/chicken dum biryani cooked in Awadhi style, Pomodoro Pizza and Alfredo pasta are must tries.

Absolute Barbecues

If you are pure non veg lover and craving for some different types of non-veg varieties then this is the right place for you. AB'S is an ultimate foodie's paradise. They have an elaborate buffet spread which begins with chicken, lamb, and seafood barbecued starters. These are so delicious that people always stuff themselves so much that they have no room for the main course. Accompanied by this is the tasty crispy corn that is another favourite. Their barbecued pineapple and watermelon are also unique and tasty. The main course again had a lavish spread of both veg and non-veg items and desserts included few of the finest pastries, ice-creams and Indian desserts like kulfi, halwas etc. All in all, this dining experience is one of a kind and is a must try!

MIDNIGHT FOOD (12 AM- 4AM)

Ever your

Ever imagined an entire midnight buffet at your service to fulfil your midnight food cravings? Well, Ohris always outdoes our expectations, doesn't it? Ohris presents its rendition of global cuisine, where culinary art meets the alchemy of contemporary dining to absorb the guest into the ultimate gastronomic illusion. The guests dining at Ohris enjoy an elaborate tapas-style menu, showcasing some innovative dishes from around the world along with extensive molecular mixology. Out of the elaborate spread at the midnight buffet, we love the bhattikamurg, mutton shorba, crumb fried chicken, murgpeshawari, fish curry, mutton marag, haleem and biryani. In desserts, we love the variety of mousse, cut fruits and ice creams.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH: COMMON BREAST CANCER MYTHS BUSTED

HEALTH

Tulip Magazine focuses on some of the most common misunderstandings associated with breast cancer. We have also enlisted Dr Crystal Fancher, a surgical breast Oncologist to help us clear all myths associated with Breast Cancer.

1. Can a breast injury cause breast cancer?

Injury to the breast cannot cause breast cancer, however, it can cause changes in the breast that may mimic breast cancer on imaging. The best way to distinguish cancer from fat necrosis is with a needle biopsy.

2. Can underwire bras increase the risk of breast cancer?

The wire can irritate the skin under the breast, which can lead to skin breakdown. This breakdown may allow bacteria to enter the breast causing infection, [an] abscess. Although underwire bras do not increase breast cancer risk, I always recommend bras without a wire.

3. No one in my family had breast cancer, so is it possible that even I won't develop it?

It is very common for [people] with a new breast cancer diagnosis to tell me how shocked they are considering that they have no family history. Because family history is only one factor in the risk of breast cancer, screening is important. If you are a woman and at least 40 years old, please get your screening mammograms!

4. Can stress cause Breast Cancer?

With the ever-present stresses of modern life, it is no surprise that people are concerned about how stress might impact health. There is absolutely no evidence to support a link between stress and breast cancer. In fact, there is evidence to support that stress does not increase breast cancer risk. Part of being human is finding effective cancer. In fact, there is evidence to support that stress does not increase breast cancer risk. Part of being human is finding effective ways to deal with the stress we all will inevitably face. This can have profound health benefits both mentally and physically but will do nothing to mitigate breast cancer risk.

5. Does Breast Cancer only happen to older adults?

While it is true that breast cancer risk increases as women age and the average age of a new breast cancer diagnosis are 61 years, breast cancer can occur much earlier. About 5% of new breast cancer diagnoses are in women under the age of 40 years. There, unfortunately, have been reports of women in their early 20s and even teens who were diagnosed.

6. Does carrying a phone in your bra can cause cancer?

There is no evidence to support that cell phones cause cancer, period. "However, we do not have any long-term studies, so we may find this to be the case in the future. For now, why can't you just put your phone in your pocket or bag?"

7. Do Nipple piercings increase breast cancer risk?

This is clearly a myth. nipple piercings do not increase breast cancer risk. However, they can lead to complications, such as infection, abscess, difficulty breastfeeding due to blocked ducts from scar tissue, nerve damage, keloids, cysts, and more rare but serious illness from HIV and hepatitis B and C."

8. Does Sugar Cause Breast Cancer?

Too much sugar can result in obesity, which is a risk factor for breast cancer. Studies investigating links between sugar and breast cancer have been "mixed and inconsistent. While discussing sugar, it is worth busting a related myth: that sugar helps tumours grow. This myth arose because cancer cells divide rapidly and, therefore, need a lot of energy.

9. Can men get breast cancer?

Men have breasts. So yes, they too get breast cancer. While breast cancer is more common in women than men, there are still men who get breast cancer. It's important for men also to be aware of any changes in their breasts since there are no recommended screening guidelines for men.

10. If there is no lump, there is no cancer. Is this true?

If this were true, then we would not need mammograms. Many breast cancers are found on screening mammograms and may not be felt. This is especially true for noninvasive breast cancer which may only show up as calcifications on a screening mammogram.

TRAVEL

What comes to your mind when someone says Punjab? Maake di roti, sarso ke khet, lassi, tractors, folk Punjabi music and whatnot. But when you actually do visit Punjab, just like everywhere else, the cities of Punjab have modernized, the tandoors replaced to modern fine-dine places, tractors to speedy cars, even lassi is served in use and throw glasses and not the big massive brass glasses- Punjabi style. But deep in Amritsar is Ranjit Vilas, designed to offer visitors a true Punjabi culture and heritage experience.

Ranjitvilas is a joint venture of four family members of Late S. Ranjit Singh Makhni who dreamt of making his grandchildren stay together in an authentic Punjabi farmhouse. It was his last wish that his future generations should not forget the taste of punjabiyat and the richness of Punjab heritage. So Ranjitvilas make his dream come true, this concept was made by his family.

A centrally located property, Ranjit Villas offers true Punjabi heritage vintage experience in Amritsar, Punjab. The aesthetically done property is spread over 1.5 acres of a farmhouse. It has easy access to Sri Guru Ram Dass Jee International Airport (3.7 Km's) & Railway Station Amritsar Junction (9 KM's), Golden Temple (11 KM's).

Their rooms are comfortable, spacious and just like every corner of the property, rooms have a very vintage feel. Premium bedding, fascinating artwork, beautiful antique furniture, lot of local food apart from continental delicacies, an array of facilities & activities that will keep you occupied through your stay and at the same time ensure a space like home while being away from home with their Punjabi hospitality.

Flowering its soothing ambience and guest service in the comforting hands of its caring staff; the hotel promises a memorable experience. You'll be delighted with their event spaces & lawns for any official meetings/ getaways, social gatherings, or weddings.

The Punjabi experience begins even before you arrive at the farm resort as the pickup/drop services are arranged by auto-rickshaw, tuk-tuk tonga, vintage ambassador car, and farm tractors basis the choice of the guest.

Once at the hotel, you can enjoy a wide range of leisure activities such as a village tour on tractors, kite flying, marble playing, turban tying, and Amritsari food cooking. Besides this chess, carom, cycling, visit artefact shop and a seasonal swimming pool keep guests engaged as well. On request occasional Bhangra/ Gidha dance performances are organized to keep the guests entertained.

In addition, the property also offers city sightseeing tours covering the most popular attractions like Sri Harmandir Sahib, Jalianwala Bagh, Wagah border, etc.
